IMPERIAL VALLEY

GLENDALIANS HELP CELEBRATE ADVENT OF NEW R. R.—REAL ESTATE BOOMING

C. E. Peck has returned from Calexico, Imperial Valley, where he and Mrs. Peck enjoyed a Thanksgiving dinner and a family reunion for the first time in eighteen years. Mrs. Peck and daughter remained for the big celebration which comes off this week of the advent of the railroad connecting San Diego with the Imperial Valley. After the 15th travelers will be able to go to Yuma via the valley.

Mr. Peck was tremendously impressed by the growth of Calexico, which, he says, is becoming a second El Paso. Two buildings to cost $100,000 each are now being erected, and real estate is more active than here. The inflation of values in the past eight years can hardly be credited, he says. Lots that were offered six years ago for $600 are now bringing $25,000 in the business district of Calexico. One piece of property on the outskirts of the town that cost $2,000 eight years ago, was sold for $10,000 recently. Of course, there is great congestion and shortage of houses and even a single furnished room commands $25.00 a month. The Methodist Church lot which was bought originally for $400 has been optioned for $25,000 without the building.

APPROACHING WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Ruby Farnsworth of this city, who is to wed Robert A. McAdam of Palmdale, has been set for Thursday, the 11th. It will be celebrated at the Congregational church in the evening at 8 o'clock, Dr. E. H. Willisford officiating, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride at 217 North Central avenue. The groom who has a large pear ranch at Palmdale, is building a handsome stone bungalow for his bride, which will be ready for their occupancy by the time they return from a fortnight's auto trip. Miss Farnsworth has a large circle of friends in this city and has been the recipient of considerable social attention since her approaching marriage was announced, being the honoree at a linen shower given by Miss Fara McDonald, and at a miscellaneous shower at which Miss Hazel Tyler was hostess.

A BUSY ARCHITECT

Alfred F. Priest, who resides in this city, but whose offices are in Los Angeles, is a busy man. One of the commissions recently completed by him is a set of plans for the building to be erected by H. E. Noble at 115 North Brand boulevard, for which the Bentley-Schoeneman Company have the general construction contract. Architect Priest has also made plans for a one-story and basement patio residence to be built at Santa Paula for C. E. Hawley. It will contain eight rooms and two bath-rooms, will have concrete foundation, cement basement, plastered exterior, with brick porch, terraces and patio. A third commission recently executed is for a two-story and basement frame and plaster residence to be built near Moorpark, Ventura county, for James Birkenshaw.

AN ELKS' GAMBOL

WHITE STAR PATROL'S ROUGH NECK MASQUERADE A GREAT SUCCESS

About two hundred pleasure seekers responded to the invitations of the White Star Patrol to attend a "Rough Neck Masquerade" last Saturday evening at the Elks' Club House, and enjoyed a delightful evening of informal dancing, with a few spot-light dances thrown in by way of variety. The grand march did not take place until 10:30. It was led by Captain W. C. Wattles, head of the patrol, and Mrs. Wattles, who were dressed in ragged burlap costumes and wore black masks. Most of the guests were masked and about sixty per cent. costumed. Michael Brennan in a polka-dot clown costume won the first gentlemen's prize, the lady's prize going to a Martha Washington costume, the wearer being a comparative stranger whose name could not be learned. A variation in the evening's program was afforded by some fancy dancing by little Marcela Webb and Carmen De Lara. The eleven o'clock toast to absent brothers was given by Exalted Ruler Cameron Thom and at twelve o'clock the company adjourned to the jinks hall where hot coffee and cookies were served.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

URGES EXTENSIVE RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM AND DEALS WITH LABOR QUESTIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—President Wilson's message delivered to Congress at noon today, urged an extensive reconstruction program. He did not discuss the peace treaty situation although he referred to it.

The president promised that he would discuss railway legislation later in another message and it is reliably learned that he will also take up the peace treaty at a later date. His recommendations included:

- The establishment of a national budget system.
- Simplification of the income tax and excess-profits taxes.
- Legislation to assure employment and land to ex-service men.
- Laws to encourage increased agricultural production.
- Protection of the chemical and dye-stuff industry.
- Federal aid for good roads.
- Development of forest resources.

Appropriations for Attorney General Palmer's program for curbing radicalism.

Extension of the Lever Food Control Act and the passage of legislation aimed at the high cost of living.

Democratization of industry including the participation by workers in all decisions affecting their welfare.

Establishment of the principles outlined in the covenant of the league of nations as a basis for dealing with labor questions.

Much of the message was devoted to labor matters. The message declared Congress must not legislate against strikes saying: "The right of the individual to strike is inviolate," and then added: "The government has an inalienable right to protect itself against the aggression of any particular class" and that "capital also has rights."

The president warned that capital and labor must not be pitted against each other.

President Wilson blamed part of the unrest of the country on failure to ratify the peace treaty.

He urged the passage of the same program of legislation against the high cost of living that he urged at the opening of the special session of Congress. He urged that the immediate revision of income and excess-profits taxes is necessary because if they are left too high they may prove destructive to business.

He warned against excess import tariffs but urged that special attention be given the protective tariff against German dyes and chemicals.

He advocated that steps be taken to make rural life more attractive in order to encourage farmers. He suggested that tribunals to decide disputes between capital and labor might help to solve labor problems.

PASSING OF HENRY C. FRICK

NOTED STEEL MAGNATE DIES OF PTOMAIN POISONING AT AGE OF SEVENTY YEARS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Henry C. Frick, noted steel magnate, died here today of ptomaine poisoning. He was aged seventy years.

When Frick retired several years ago from active business he was reputed to be one of the ten wealthiest men in the United States and one of the leaders in the world's business. He was an associate of Andrew Carnegie. He laid the basis for his fortune while engaged in business as a flour miller and then entered the coke business, his company becoming the greatest coke producers in the world.

Frick was also famous as an art collector and had a collection of paintings worth millions. He was reputed to have paid as high as half a million dollars for a single painting.

AUBURN, Cal., Dec. 2.—Fire today destroyed the beautiful summer home of Secretary of State Jordan with a loss of $10,000.

ALEXANDER TO SUCCEED REDFIELD

NOMINATION FOR SECRETARY OF COMMERCE TO BE SUBMITTED BY PRESIDENT TO SENATE

MEXICAN RUMORS OF CONFLICT DENIED

RAILWAY OFFICIALS PRONOUNCE UNTRUE STORY OF WIPING OUT OF CARRANZA FORCE BY VILLISTAS

EL PASO, Dec. 2.—Late reports reaching the border seem to refute a previous report that a Villa force had wiped out 674 Carranza soldiers in a recent battle. Mexican railway officials deny the report and add that Mexico is quiet and business is prosperous.

WELFARE MEETING

GLENDALE COUNCIL ELECTS PERMANENT OFFICERS AND DISCUSSES PLANS

A meeting of the Glendale Welfare Council was held at the City Hall Monday evening for the election of permanent officers and the transaction of any other business that might come before the organization.

Mrs. A. A. Barton, the temporary chairman, called the meeting to order and the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the temporary secretary, Mrs. R. A. Blackburn. Following were the officers elected: President, Mrs. E. D. Yard; Vice President, Clarence E. Kimlin; Secretary, Mrs. E. L. Young; Treasurer, Mrs. R. A. Blackburn; Director at Large, John G. Monahan.

Two more organizations, through official representatives, signed the constitution and were admitted to membership, viz. The Greater Glendale Development Association—represented by its president, Norton C. Wells, and Glendale Council No. 1920 Knights of Columbus, represented by Mr. Monahan.

The temporary executive committee reported that nineteen baskets had been distributed at Thanksgiving time, nine of which were provided by the Welfare Council and ten by organizations which are members of the Council.

There was informal discussion of work to be undertaken by the organization but no other business was transacted.

Mrs. Blackburn, the welfare worker employed by the city was at her desk this morning in the City Hall and will be subject to call there hereafter on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings. In her absence messages will be taken by City Hall employees.

ENTERTAIN PASTORS

DR. AND MRS. W. E. EDMONDS OPEN MANSE TO WELCOME NEW GLENDALE MINISTERS

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds entertained clergymen of Glendale and their wives Monday evening at the manse, the new pastors being guests of honor. It was a purely social evening in which "shop talk" was forgotten, the program being quite informal. Miss Winnie Sinclair gave several readings which were much enjoyed, Allen McDaniel contributed violin numbers for which his wife furnished the piano accompaniment, and saxophone numbers were played by Miss Esther Edmonds, for which her sister, Elizabeth, furnished the accompaniment. An address of welcome was made by Dr. E. H. Willisford, and a response on behalf of the new pastors by Rev. F. Marion Smith. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostess, her guest list including Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Cole, Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Ford, Rev. and Mrs. O. P. Rider, Rev. and Mrs. F. Marion Smith of the Central Avenue Methodist Church, Rev. Thayer of Eagle Rock, who is officiating at the Casa Verdugo Church, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford, Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDaniel, and Miss Winnie Sinclair.

MRS. PORTER ENTERTAINS

Two Thanksgiving celebrations were enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Sophia C. Porter and daughter at 405 East Harvard street, Thursday. Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Bixby of Los Angeles and James Current of Glendale were entertained. Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Porter and daughters, Mildred and Sylvia, of Riverside, came to Glendale to spend the week-end with Mr. Porter's mother, sister and his daughter, Frances, who has been living in Glendale for some time. She goes to Riverside the middle of the week for an indefinite stay.

VAN DEN BERGS GO ABROAD

Brahm Van den Berg, the pianist, and Mrs. Van den Berg, who have been spending the past six months at Venice, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sonntag, on S. Glendale avenue. They are leaving Thursday for New York and will sail the middle of December for Antwerp. Mr. Van den Berg will concertize in Europe during the winter, having his headquarters in Antwerp, where his mother lives and where Mrs. Van den Berg and children will spend the winter.

A. H. Montgomery of 415 South Central avenue is expected home from an eastern trip tomorrow.

WEATHER FORECAST: Unsettled weather, probable rain, temperature unchanged.

NEW LODGE UNITS

VERY SUCCESSFUL MEETING BY GLENDALE ELKS TO WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

A very successful meeting of the Glendale Elks' Lodge was held Monday evening, about two hundred and fifty members being in attendance to witness the impressive ceremonies with which a large class of candidates was initiated, the new members being: W. Mervyn Mills; Carnot K. Valiton, James G. Armstrong, George S. Morgan, William P. Wilson, Ray L. Rehart, Ernest A. Moulton, William F. James, L. C. Denman, William E. Pearson, Robert C. Goudie, Bert Lee Cline, Joseph C. Furness (initiated for the San Francisco Lodge No. 3) and Mr. Marks (initiated for L. A. Lodge No. 99).

About six applications for membership were received and seven new members elected.

Following the lodge session a nice moving picture program was put on in the jinks hall with Hawaiian songs with ukulele accompaniment by E. P. Rose, the well-known singer of Los Angeles.

Announcement was made that next Sunday Memorial Services will be held in the lodge hall at 2:30 in the afternoon, to which the public will be welcome, the memorial address to be made by Bruce R. Drake.

FAMILY GATHERINGS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wattles of South Glendale avenue entertained with a family party last week in honor of William Haskell, of Fresno, uncle of Mr. Wattles, who has been spending a week with relatives in Southern California, and who is returning to Fresno tonight. The other guests were the parents of Mr. Wattles, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wattles, of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Gould of Worcester, Mass., who are spending the winter in Los Angeles, and Miss Kathleen Malcolm, of Aberdeen, Scotland. On Thursday the same party was entertained with a Thanksgiving dinner in Los Angeles at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wattles. It was the first feast of that kind that Miss Malcolm had attended and she was greatly interested in the national holiday. Mr. Gould was in the ambulance service during the war and had some interesting experiences. He is now writing a book compiled from the letters he wrote Mrs. Gould during that period in which he gave details of daily happenings.

A LATE THANKSGIVING

MR. AND MRS. A. D. HURD ENTERTAIN RELATIVES—HAVE GOOD NEWS FROM SON

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hurd, of 110 South Adams street, entertained with a belated Thanksgiving dinner on Sunday when covers were laid for a turkey feast at their hospitable board for the parents of the host, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hurd, Mr. Westlake, Miss Mary Holm, and for Mr. and Mrs. Ewing of Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, cousins of the hostess. While their son, Glenn D. Hurd, was greatly missed, they had been cheered by letters from him expressing contentment with and great interest in his work. He is with a medical corps of the regular army sent to Vladivostok as replacement troops and is doing hospital duty. He writes cheerfully and says the soldier life is largely what the soldier makes it.

SONG LEADER CLARK

Under the spiritual song leadership of Mr. Clark the special Soul-Winning Services in the Lutheran church at 7:30 every evening, are moving along very nicely. Mr. and Mrs. Greedy of Los Angeles by their sweet voices in song, are also adding their impetus to the services. The use of the booklet, "Awakening Songs," the same as used here during the stay of the Vom Bruch Party, is putting snap and spirit into the services. Mr. Clark is undoubtedly bidding fair to succeed Charles M. Alexander, the world-renowned song leader. God has endowed him with a clear, round, sweet, persuasive voice that takes hold of the very heart and makes you feel the Gospel and your need of salvation. Those who miss the inspiration in song in these meetings lose much indeed.

The pastor's strong scriptural addresses are convincing and making an impression to the glory of God and the good of souls. The services are meeting with increased interest.

GLENDAL E SANITARIUM NOTES

W. K. Kellogg of Battle Creek, the somewhat famous manufacturer of corn flakes, whose expenditures for advertising that breakfast delicacy average about a million dollars annually, was in Glendale last week at the Sanitarium. He is a personal friend of the manager, Clarence Kimlin, and was on his way to Japan.

Dr. Westphal, who has been taking special professional work in New York, is expected home the first of next week.

Ernest Lloyd, a former resident of Glendale, was a recent visitor at the "San." He is now at Mountain View.

L. M. Bowen, manager of the Loma Linda Sanitarium, was here a few days ago.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas are entertaining members of the White Star Patrol and their ladies with a dancing party Thursday evening at the White Inn.

James Current of 1326 East Broadway has gone to work in the shipyards at San Pedro where his brother and a number of his chums are employed.

Members of the Foster Bridge Club are to be entertained by Mrs. W. W. Ramsay at her home on Adams street with a 12:30 luncheon on Friday, followed by the usual afternoon at cards.

Mrs. J. H. Braly goes to Los Angeles today to attend a meeting of regents of chapters of the D. A. R. in Southern California, preparatory to the big State Convention to be held in Los Angeles.

The contract has just been let for the church for the Friends at Bell for which Arthur G. Lindley, of this city, drew the plans. It is to cost about $20,000 and besides the auditorium will contain Sunday School department rooms.

In connection with the campaign for a club house for the Tuesday Afternoon Club, members of the Music Section are endeavoring to raise a fund for the purchase of a grand piano for the new club home when completed.

Mrs. C. Garfield Kinney entertained for Thanksgiving and over Sunday as house guests at "Sleepy Hollow," Mrs. Thaddeus B. Cook and Mrs. George C. Everheart of Socorro, New Mexico. Collie E. Kinney was also a guest.

The baseball team of the local Elks' lodge is to play against the team of the Long Beach lodge at Redondo, when officers of the "baby lodge" just organized, are installed Friday. A big delegation will go from here to attend the festivities and ceremonials.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kelty entertained with a dinner on Thanksgiving Day at which covers were laid for sixteen, their guest list including Mr. and Mrs. George Cornwell, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cornwell and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cornwell, Dr. and Mrs. Fay G. Stone, Misses Jennie, Carrie and May Cornwell.

Duke Claussenius has returned from a duck hunting excursion to Elizabeth Lake with twenty-five big ducks to show for his skill as a sportsman. While he accomplished what he went after he got stuck in the snow and had to telephone to Joe Linden to come and pull him out. The snowfall was heavy there—two feet on the level, they said.

Mrs. Leon Sonntag is eagerly anticipating the arrival of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roddewig, and baby daughter, of Davenport, Iowa, who are expected this week. Mr. Roddewig will be here until New Year's and will then return to Iowa, leaving his wife to spend the winter with her sister.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyons will be glad to learn that they have returned to Glendale and are now occupying the house owned by Dr. Furst on Harvard St. Mr. Lyons is a brother-in-law of J. A. Newton and Mrs. Lyons is a sister of Tom Furst. They were married in Glendale and have such a big circle of friends here that it is coming home to return to this city.

Mrs. Louise Purnell of Ivy street was pleasantly surprised today by her nephew, Ivan Hilton, of Springfield, Illinois, whom she had not seen for eight years and who has changed so much in that time that she did not know him. He will be her guest and also the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Anna Elsgen, on Jackson street and may remain until after the holidays.

SHAKESPEARE SECTION

The Shakespeare Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of which Mrs. E. D. Yard is curator and Mrs. C. B. McClure leader, was delightfully entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. Colin Cable of Columbus avenue. The study of Othello was completed and a decision was reached to have an open meeting January 5th at which scenes from the play will be enacted by members for the entertainment of an audience of guests, each member being permitted to invite one friend. The study of "Taming of the Shrew" will be begun December 14th. At the close of the lesson delicious refreshments were served and it was voted one of the pleasantest meetings the section has ever enjoyed.

REUNION PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Leonard of Sixth street and Grand View avenue were host and hostess at a picnic reunion which is an annual Thanksgiving affair. Invitations were sent to about eighty guests, but on account of unfavorable weather only forty-one were present. These represented the following places: Glendale, Burbank, Monrovia, Pomona, Loma Linda, Los Angeles, Santa Ana, Illinois and Tennessee. Because of the cool, windy weather tables were spread indoors and after a bountiful feast a social afternoon was enjoyed with informal entertainment of songs, readings and piano numbers.

ADVENTIST CHURCH MOVING

The movers who have taken the contract to transfer the Seventh-day Adventist Church from its present site on Isabel and Wilson avenue to a lot further north on Isabel, have their timbers and rollers on the ground and will probably begin operations Wednesday. The church is to be considerably enlarged and the auditorium probably doubled in size. At the present time the church is holding services in the Intermediate auditorium which was filled at the services on Saturday.

LOS ANGELES.—Fishing banks off Lower California and the west coast of Mexico will be open to California fishermen under certain restrictions, if President Carranza of Mexico accepts an agreement which has been endorsed by the Chambers of Commerce of numerous California ports. Samuel G. Vasquez, special agent for the Mexican government and for the state governments of the west coast of Mexico, now is en route to Mexico City from Los Angeles to lay the agreement before Carranza. Full details of the arrangement have not been made public.

SAN FRANCISCO.—The interstitial gland operation, made famous by experiments at San Quentin prison, offers new lease of life to genius, declared Dr. Victor G. Veckl, well-known surgeon, in an address today before the Western Arts Association. Dr. Veckl, who has been associated with San Quentin surgeons in their gland operations, spoke on the subject, "The Effect of Interstitial Gland Transplantation on Genius." Broken down and worn out men of genius can be rejuvenated, he said, and their genius will be restored to vigor. He foresaw great things for the gland operation. Men like Paderevski, who are aging, he said, could be restored to their former vigor.

The Norwalk Call tells of a new resident of Downey, who came there only two years ago from Illinois, without much to start on, but he already owns two or three of the leading businesses of the town, much to the horror of the old residents who didn't believe there was any life left in the old town. It makes them sore to see any one come in and make money where they knew it couldn't be done. But he had the advantage of not knowing that it couldn't be done.

A Home is a Permanent Institution

The Home is not established for a day or a year. It is the foundation upon which our republic is built—hence it must be enduring. All the hopes and plans of the family are for the future—there is ever the look forward.

That is why thoughtful people, when they build Homes build for the future. That is why they do not erect temporary, inferior structures to house such enduring institutions as Homes.

In building a Home it is important, first of all, to plan well. So much depends upon the way a house is planned. Carelessness in this regard will be repented through the years. It is not wise, either, to use poor materials or to allow careless construction. It is not necessary to build a large or pretentious house in order to build permanently and well. A few rooms conveniently arranged can make a happy home.

We are here to help the family who wants to build for the future, be it a tiny bungalow or a mansion.

DRY WINTER PREDICTED

All the squirrel signs, and the wild fox signs, and the wild goose signs, and the old resident signs, point to a dry winter this year. Which probably accounts for the several splendid rains we have already had.
